

Inspection of smoke and heat exhaust ventilation systems (SHEV)

Smoke and heat exhaust ventilation (SHEV) systems are devices that remove smoke and heat from rooms where fire breaks out. They facilitate evacuation and protect the building against smoke and water damage.

Vinçotte advises you in your choice of the right system, helps you with its correct implementation and checks its proper functioning.

Your tailor-made solution

Your result

Please note

In which situation?

Ce service est principalement destiné aux architectes, entreprises, installateurs, syndics, facility managers, ...